Smiles At News

Attractive Mrs. Elsie Tice smiles in Los Angeles as she receives word of her husband's exploit while flying over Japan on a reconnaissance mission. While over Kishin, Lt. Col. Clay Tice, commander of the 49th Fighter Group, noticed the plane of Flight Officer Douglas Hall develop engine trouble. He wiggled his wings at Hall and led him into Nittagahara airfield on central Kyushu. Jap officers chatted with them until a B-17 flew in an emergency supply of gas so they could return to Ochiawa.

PA NEWC Observes

Some of the streams in this area are at an unusually low stage, Pa. Newc is told. Big Run is especially low in the South Side district.

Summer season for bathing at the city pool at Cascade park has come to a conclusion. Weather conditions somewhat affected attendance at the pool this season, but one day established a record of around 2800 persons patronizing the pool, Pa. Newc is told.

Something bigger and better in the way of a tomato crop is a cluster of 13 tomatoes all on one stem, all of edible size and all ripe but one, from a plant in the garden of Alvin Elder of West Liberty. Shipper Rock R. D. 1. Mr. Elder is shop foreman at the Manufacturers Light & Heat company here.

Pa. Newc notes that a 19-inch four-pound small mouth bass was recently taken from the Susquehanna river, one of the largest catches of the season. Wonder who got the biggest bass in local streams during the present season. Write to Pa. Newc if you have a claim.

Ardently on the trail of a rumor which said that President Truman went through New Castle this morning, Pa. Newc did some checking up to get what he thought would be a good story. He found out that a president was going through all right, but it was the president of the B. & O. railroad.

Drivers of the war period have now a chance to get out of the city, are discovering that some road improvements have been made in western Pennsylvania during the war period. They have also discovered what strip mining has done to some of the picturesque western Pennsylvania scenery. Likewise it is found that there has been some widespread cutting down of timberland in this end of the state.

Camp Reynolds at the present time is rather a subdued looking place, compared to the rush days of a year or more ago, when thousands of soldiers were in the camp. (Continued on Page Two)

Nine Warships Lead Procession Into Tokyo Bay

Vanguard Of American Fleet Prepares Way For Yokosuka Base Occupation

SCENES OF RUIN GREET ARRIVAL

By ELGAR BROWN
(International News Service)

WITH ADM. BADGER'S LANDING FORCE, Tokyo Bay, Aug. 28.—Rear Adm. Oscar C. Badger, on the bridge of the cruiser San Diego, today led nine warships into Tokyo Bay to prepare for occupation in force of the once-great Yokosuka naval base.

This first waterborne occupation of defeated Japan coincides with the airborne arrival of about 150 Americans at Atsugi airfield, 22 miles from the imperial palace.

No Hostility Seen

No evidence of hostility attended either mission. (NBC) Joe Hainline said that one mine exploded off the port quarter of the USS Gosselin, but did no damage. ABC correspondent Norman Paige, aboard the same vessel, reported that one of Badger's units picked up a stray mine in the gateway to Tokyo Bay.

Ships following the San Diego through the mystery laden port to the heart harbor of Japan included the destroyers Yarnall, Twining, Stockham and Wedderburn.

The auxiliary high speed transport Gosselin and the auxiliary seaplane tender Gardiner Bay, Suisun and Mackinac also participated in the cautious passage through Uraga Strait.

There was noticeable tension as we sailed between sloping cliffs lined with 116 major caliber guns, sullenly silent and presumably unmanned.

Japs Docile In Surrender

By KENNETH McCALEB
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD THE USS IOWA IN SAGAMI BAY, Aug. 28.—Conquered and demoralized Japan will welcome American troops Thursday with fatalistic apathy and obedience.

This was plainly indicated today after I talked with surrender officials and high American officers, so far not identifiable, who have been in close touch with the emissaries of a hopeless, starving people.

The only mystery left to "mysterious" Nippon is why she didn't surrender months ago, according to the picture obtained by these officers.

In conferences afloat yesterday and today, Jap emissaries humbly promised their American conquerors every possible facility ashore when they move in, but confessed these facilities are few.

Butter Drops To 12 Points Sunday

OPA Discloses Government Planning To Halt Set-Aside Purchase For Army

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—OPA spokesmen disclosed today that butter point values will be reduced from 16 to 12 red points per pound beginning with the new ration period Sunday.

The point value cut will apply both to institutional users and individual consumers.

OPA's disclosure followed information that the government is planning to halt soon its set-aside purchases of butter for the armed forces, thus making considerable more butter available for civilian consumption.

Government officials, meanwhile, do not expect that butter will be taken completely off rationing in the near future.

They explained that such action would put heavy "pressure" on meat through increased red points. Also, it was pointed out the butter industry is now entering a low production period.

The armed forces will purchase butter from the open market after the set-aside buying is ended.

Four Mighty American Fleets Participate In Occupation Of Japan

(BULLETIN) GUAM, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Pacific fleet headquarters announced today that four mighty American fleets will participate in occupation and control of coastal waters of Japan and Jap-held territories.

Adm. William F. Halsey's powerful U. S. Third Fleet, assigned primarily to occupation of waters in the Tokyo area, will be augmented by Adm. Raymond A. Spruance's Fifth Fleet, Admiral Thomas C. Kinkaid's Seventh Fleet and the North Pacific Fleet under Vice Admiral Frank Jack Fletcher.

Three separate amphibious forces under the overall command of Adm. Richmond Kelly Turner, commander of Pacific fleet amphibious forces, will land occupying troops in designated areas.

The Third, Fifth and Seventh Amphibious Forces will be under the operational control of the corresponding fleets and a portion of the Third Amphibious Force will operate with the North Pacific fleet.

Supervise In Korea
Fleet headquarters said that Vice Adm. Daniel E. Barbey's Seventh Amphibious Force will supervise the occupation of Korea which has been already assigned by Gen. Douglas MacArthur to Maj. Gen. John R. Hodge's 24th Army Corps. Barbey (Continued on Page Two)

Public Schools Ready For Term

Indications Of Return Of Considerable Number Of Students Formerly In War Work

ALTHOUGH the official enumeration of students returning to the public schools a week from Wednesday shows around 8,000, the unofficial forecast is that enrollment will be higher, according to Frank L. Burton, superintendent of the city schools.

No one is sure just how many servicemen will be returning to complete their interrupted high school education, nor how many 16, 17, and 18-year olds will be going back to school now that their jobs in war industries have been halted by the end of fighting.

Increase In Lower Grades
Although the figure of 8,000 is a slight decrease from last year's enrollment, the lower grades, first, second, and third, show an increase. Total registration is so far pretty evenly divided between the elementary and higher grades, however.

Besides returning students, there will be returning teachers this fall, said Mr. Burton. Three of New Castle's teachers are coming back to the classroom after receiving discharges from the armed forces, while thirteen others are still in service.

Liquor license refunds of $26,950, Lawrence County's part of the $2,365,737.50 allocated to municipalities throughout the state from the funds of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, have been authorized by G. Harold Wagner, auditor general of the commonwealth.

The county's refunds are divided as follows:
New Castle, $17,500; Bessemer, $600; Ellport, $300; Ellwood City, $5750; Enon Valley, $150; Wampum, $300; Mahoning Township, $800; Shenango Township, $800; Taylor Township, $400; Union Township, $250; Wayne Township, $100.

Gen. MacArthur To Plan For Return To United States

MANILA, Aug. 28.—(INS)—A close friend of General Douglas MacArthur told International News Service today that he expects the supreme Allied commander to remain in Japan only a short time.

As soon as the occupation is running smoothly, MacArthur will return to the United States to make his report to the President and receive a grateful nation's thanks for his brilliant military leadership.

Friends of the five-starred general declared he is entitled to a rest after nine years absence from the United States. He is expected to settle in Virginia with his wife and young son and write his memoirs.

Larger Army For Peacetime Will Be Needed

Director Says More Men Than Authorized To Be Needed Ultimately

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Brig. Gen. H. N. Gilbert, director of the newly organized military personnel procurement service, said today that a "larger peacetime army than now authorized will be needed ultimately."

Gilbert's remarks were made in an exclusive interview during which he revealed that the army is set to spring "very attractive" inducements for men to enlist as "guardians of victory."

Fore-shadows Battle

His assertions on an increased peacetime army fore-shadowed a battle between congress and the army high-command over size of the post-war military force.

Present authorized strength of the peacetime army is 280,000. Lieut. general organizer and former director of the war department office of dependency benefits, made this argument.

"We have just won the war—now we must preserve that victory and see this thing through to a final, just, secure and lasting peace."

Gilbert, who before the war built up the U. S. regular army and air force from 140,000 to over a half million men by voluntary enlistment, asserted that "our young men will want the opportunity under favorable inducement to serve at this time—to be guardians of victory."

Seek To Force Public Pearl Harbor Probe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—A movement was underway today in congress to force a public probe of the Pearl Harbor disaster of Dec. 7, 1941.

Rep. Short (R) Mo. disclosed that he will press for a Congressional investigation unless court martial trials are instituted by the War and Navy departments.

The Missouri Congressman, a House Military Affairs committee member, was instrumental with Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich. in having the statute of limitations continued until six months after the war to permit trials of Pearl Harbor commanders.

Short expressed dissatisfaction with President Truman's announced intention to make public soon the results of a 1944 investigation by the War and Navy departments.

"I'm not interested in what someone else has to say about it," he declared. "I want a public open court martial. There is no reason for any further delay."

Short demanded that Rear Admiral Husband E. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter C. Kittel, the Navy and Army commanders at Pearl Harbor at the time of the Japanese attack, "be given a chance to tell their story." The two men were placed on the retirement list early in 1942 after being removed from their commands.

"I want them to tell the American people and congress what orders they had from the White House and the State department, asserted Short. "I want them to tell why those ships of ours were lined up like sitting ducks."

Gen. Wainwright Reaches Chungking

CHUNGKING, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Lieut. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, hero of the last days of Bataan and Corregidor, arrived at Chungking today amid wild scenes of jubilation.

The field commander who succeeded Gen. Douglas MacArthur as leader of the Filipino-American troops trying to stem the Japs in the early days of conquest came to Chungking by plane from Manila, where he had been held in a prisoner of war camp.

Two C-47's brought Wainwright and a group of prisoners of war and internees to the Chinese capital. In addition to the heroic American general, other first arrivals included Lieut. Gen. Arthur Percival, former British commander at Singapore, and three Dutch generals captured in green uniforms.

Food, Supplies Are Dropped To War Prisoners

GUAM, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Approximately 453 tons of food and supplies were dropped by parachute today by 125 B-29s to allied prisoners of war camps on Honshu and Kyushu.

It was the second mercy mission flown by 20th Airforce Superfortresses in two days. A small force of B-29s having dropped bundles near Wihshien, China, yesterday.

Today's relief packages went to an estimated 20,000 internees of 30 camps located in the southern sector of the main island.

This brought success to more than half the estimated 32,000 to 35,000 prisoners interned in 140 camps in Japan and Korea.

Jap Premier Tells Cause Of Nation's Defeat

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Premier Prince Hiroshi Kuni declared today, Domei reported, that Japan's defeat was the result of "rapid deterioration of the nation's fighting strength."

This "deterioration," the premier said, will be revealed "in a most outspoken manner" at a forthcoming session of the imperial Diet.

The premier, Domei said in an FCC recorded dispatch, promised dissolution of the Diet in the near future in favor of general elections on the basis of new ideas and thoughts.

Meanwhile, he warned his nation "all our efforts should be exerted to insure self-sufficiency. The whole nation should till the soil in view of the possibility that importation of food from abroad will not be permitted."

Japs Polite As Americans Land

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—NBC and Newsweek Correspondent Robert Shapiro said today in a broadcast from Okinawa that the Japs were "as polite as possible" to Americans who landed at Atsugi airfield.

Shapiro, who obtained his information by radio from a B-17 pilot flying above the Japanese airfield, said the first 48 American planes experienced no difficulty in the landings or with the populace.

While co-pilots guarded the planes from curious throngs of Japs who had to be pushed back, pilots were treated to a six course dinner. Later, Shapiro said, the co-pilots got the same fare.

Airborne Troops Land On Honshu To Prepare Way

Marines And Amphibious Troops Scheduled To Land Thursday Morning

HALSEY'S FLEET NEAR TOKYO BAY

(BULLETIN) MANILA, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Scores of big army transport planes shuttled between Okinawa and Japan tonight, carrying technical experts and vast quantities of occupation equipment to Atsugi airfield where advance airborne units landed early yesterday.

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

MANILA, Aug. 28.—The long-awaited and once-delayed occupation of Japan was well under way today with advanced airborne troops at work on Honshu's Atsugi airfield and a naval spearhead force riding at anchor in Tokyo bay.

Nine warships of Admiral William F. Halsey's mighty third fleet made the historic entry into Tokyo bay this afternoon and dropped anchor 300 yards off Yokosuka naval base after a short, uneventful but dramatic voyage through Uraga strait from Sagami bay.

Halsey's third fleet—concentrated in the Tokyo area—will be augmented by the U. S. fifth, seventh and ninth fleets.

Marines To Land Thursday
Rear Adm. Oscar C. Badger's advanced naval force of nine third fleet warships, which entered Tokyo bay will take care of all preliminary arrangements for the scheduled landing of 10,000 marine amphibious troops and 3,000 bluejackets Thursday morning.

Report 36 Members Of 'Ultra-Patriotics' Commit Hara-Kiri

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Domei said today that 36 members of Japanese "ultra-patriotic" organizations have committed hara-kiri since their country's capitulation.

The dispatch, recorded by FCC, said the suicides included:

Ten members of the "Senjo Dokuritu" and the "Kokusai Domei" national league, who committed hara-kiri near Atsugawa, Shima, August 22.

Twelve of the "Meikoku" who killed themselves in front of the imperial palace August 23.

Fourteen of the "Daitoku" who ended their lives near the Navy parade ground August 24.

Domei also disclosed the suicide of Lt. Col. Hiroshi Yoshimura, aide to Prince Ri-Gu, who was killed in the atomic bombing of Hiroshima on August 7.

Colonel Yoshimura killed himself, Domei said, to atone for his "lack of responsibility" for the late prime.

Wainwright Thanks American Citizens For Understanding

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Lt. Gen. Jonathan Wainwright, in his first interview since his release from a Japanese prison camp today, thanked the American people for their kind understanding.

His message, released in Chungking through NBC's Stefan Andrews and addressed to the American people, follows.

"My heart goes out to President Roosevelt, to the war department and to the American people for their kind understanding of the misfortune that befell me on Bataan and Corregidor."

"I am most sorry that I cannot thank President Roosevelt in person. To the American people, I say: 'Thank you with all my heart.'"

Gen. DeGaulle Is Chicago Guest

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle, president of the provisional French government, received from Chicago today a tumultuous greeting seldom given a foreign dignitary.

He made plain his mission to America when he declared at a banquet in his honor at the Blackstone hotel last night that 100 million Frenchmen pin their hope for the rebirth of France on the American people.

Japanese Admit U. S. Airman Slain By Jap Officer

Crewman Who Parachuted To Island In Palau Groups Killed By Nipponese Officer

GUAM, Aug. 28.—(INS)—American military officials said today that Japanese officers negotiating the surrender of the Palau islands freely admitted that a B-24 crewman was murdered by a Nipponese officer on Koror less than four months ago.

The admission was made by six Japanese officers during two meetings held aboard the Destroyer Escort Amick, southeast of Bandathup, largest island in the Palau group.

Col. Tada, chief of staff to Lt. Gen. Inoue Japanese commandant, one of the surrender delegation who boarded the U. S. vessel from two motor launches Aug. 25, expressed "regrets" for the "incident".

The colonel said that the crewman, who parachuted from a B-24 shot down over Koror May 4, had been taken prisoner and "unfortunately" killed by a Japanese officer between May 10 and 15.

The American was not put to death in the carrying out of a sentence by a military court, the Japanese colonel admitted.

Says Atom Bombs Place Planes In Obsolete Class

LONDON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Sir Arthur Harris, Britain's famed wartime commander of the air forces, warned today that the atomic bomb had made the fighter and bombing plane as "obsolete as the Dodo."

In an interview published in the London Daily Sketch, Sir Arthur added that the new weapon also made invasion a thing of the past since the destruction of an enemy nation was possible without it.

"The country with the best scientific brains, regardless of its size, will obtain future mastery of the air," Sir Arthur added. "The next war will be the 'atomic war' and no country will be able to remain outside of it. All that is required now is range. Atomic power will be capable of driving the missile as well as causing its explosion."

lating to occupation of the huge naval base and the nearby airfield. As the vanguard of allied might rode at anchor in Tokyo bay, sea-plane tenders readied for takeoffs to prepare the great Japanese seaplane base for the landings of swarms of American amphibious aircraft.

During the next 48 hours, the main body of Adm. William F. Halsey's third fleet and amphibious forces including 10,000 crack Marines and 3,000 blue-jackets is expected in orderly waves.

Our advance flotilla, anchored only a few hundred yards off the Yokosuka base in an almost lifeless harbor marked by the headstones of bomb-shattered Japanese merchant and warships.

Through the hot clear air, the battered Nipponese battleship Nagato was clearly visible.

Scenes Of Ruin
Giant black cranes droop dejectedly over dock areas piled high with the rubble of warehouses smashed by the relentless pre-velocity B-29 and carrier plane raids.

No smoke rises from the stacks of sprawling factories along the shoreline and even the great city of Yokohama, visible from the anchorage, is seemingly somnolent in the brilliant sunlight.

An ancient steam tug, bearing a score of Jap naval officers, is the only Japanese vessel cutting the placid harbor waters.

In fact, since this spearhead of the allied occupation task force sighted anchor in Sagami Bay at 9:20 a. m., 15:20 p. m. Monday (PWT) there have been almost no manifestations of life in this area of occupation.

Marines lining the decks of a troop transport accompanying this advance flotilla study the three small islands guarding the mouth of Tokyo Bay. They will go ashore on these islands.

At the moment, only one man, a forlorn figure, can be seen. He is on the spit of the islands, near the Yokosuka.

A stray plane soared overhead occasionally. We felt naked and unprotected.

Tavern Near Camp Reynolds Looted

GREENVILLE, Pa., Aug. 28.—Armed bandits today trussed up the proprietors and bartender of the Blue Sky tavern near Camp Reynolds, Greenville, and escaped with $1200 in merchandise and money.

The robbers tied up Joseph Godina, 38, his wife, Josephine, 30, and bartender Joseph Glaven, 52. Godina said $200 worth of goods were taken and $1000 in cash.

In pointing to advantages already stored up for regular army enlistees, Gilbert stressed that more are upcoming soon. He described them all as "very attractive, a real inducement."

Some of the present incentives for enlistment have not reached all men in overseas theaters yet, Gilbert said. He added that when they are made fully known he "anticipated many thousands of voluntary enlistments."

Among these are reenlistment allowances for former regular army men in addition to mustering out pay under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Service men may choose their branch of service as well as overseas theaters and are given a three-month furlough at home.

Warning is issued by officials for all drivers to observe all safety precautions. Older cars and tires are dangerous for any high speed, it is emphasized.

CORRESPONDENT LANDS IN CHINA

Shantung province airstrip a week ago after being driven out of Korea by threatening Japs while on a similar errand of mercy to mark prison camps there for dropping supplies.

En route there our B-17, with another correspondent and three photographers aboard, buzzed Shanghai and gave the world's seventh largest city a "token liberation."

Shanghai Greeting
We don't know whether ours was the first American plane over Shanghai since the Japs quit, but the people acted as if it were.

Time after time as we flew at rooftop level we saw American and Chinese flags go up on poles from which they were hauled down nearly four years ago when the Japs seized the city.

People poured from houses into the streets and onto roofs, their faces upturned toward our plane. We could actually see their smiles.

All the old familiar landmarks that I last saw in 1940 were there—the Cathay and Metropole hotels, Broadway mansions, the former Jap headquarters, the bank and business buildings—all of them stood out in the early morning sun.

There was no new damage since that done by the Japs in 1937, our planes having attacked only airfields in the Shanghai area.

Outside the city we saw many gun emplacements, apparently unmanned.

On one airfield were some 30 Zeros, all damaged in their revolutions, but there was not a living soul visible.

Col. R. E. Ross of Skowhegan, Me., an airforce intelligence officer, remarked: "What a temptation we must be to those ack-ack boys."

But no shot was fired either at Shanghai or as we flew northward toward Weihai.

STATE SUFFERS SHARP DECLINE IN TOBACCO CROP

Coming as a surprise to many persons who did not even know that tobacco was grown profitably in Pennsylvania is the news that a serious drop in the state's cigar leaf tobacco production is reported by the State Department of Agriculture.

This year's crop of Pennsylvania Seedling and Pennsylvania Havana Seed because of cool wet weather early in the season is nearly eight million pounds less than last year, the department reports. These varieties are grown in the southeastern part of the state where there is a large cigar leaf tobacco industry.

In New Castle there is a teacher for every job, even in the heretofore "scarce" fields of shop, physical education, music, and art.

Helping to lick this shortage are thirteen new teachers, recently elected to fill vacancies. Six are in elementary school, one in Mahoning one at Washington, three at Franklin, and two at senior high.

Because of the resignation of Brown K. Thacker, former principal of Washington Junior high, two transfers have been made within the city system. Miss Nannie Micheltree, for a number of years principal of Mahoning school, has replaced Mr. Thacker, while Fred L. McLure, formerly a teacher at Franklin and at Senior high, is taking over Miss Micheltree's job at Mahoning.

When the doors are opened for the students on September 3, the youngsters will return to freshly varnished desks, newly waxed floors and scrubbed walls in all of the schools. Many of the courses are boasting "brand-new" textbooks such as a "science" series for the grade school children. At Senior high, almost all of the woodwork has been repainted, while at Oak street such a complete job of renovation has been done that the school will hold open house immediately after the opening of the school term.

To move an American armored division with its approximately 3,700 vehicles by rail, 75 trains and 2,700 cars are needed.

Alleged Chicken Thief Is Wounded

LATROBE, Pa., Aug. 28.—(INS)—Jay Maman, of the New Alexander Latrobe road, was treated at a hospital today for a shotgun wound in his thigh after a neighbor fired in the direction of his chicken coop.

Bill Newhouse tonight he heard a noise near his local house and fired toward it. Maman admitted being near the chicken coop, police said, but denied he was stealing chickens. They added there were three chickens in a sack near the coop.

CHANGING FAST

Changing our plants back to making civilian goods, has been done a great deal faster than we expected. We already have in stock, both for wholesale and retail trade, fine metal and aluminum caskets and we are expecting, within a very short time, a shipment of metal vaults, which we are positive the American people have been waiting for, as there is no better protection made, than a good metal vault.

The restrictions are off of linings for caskets, so that all kinds of caskets will be like pre-war caskets, in a very short time, and prices, yes, they should be pre-war prices.

MAUCK-MILLER ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Mauck, 409 Hillcrest avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lieut. Martha Mauck, a navy nurse, stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., to Chief Dwight C. Miller, U. S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wook, 34 Maple Drive, Youngstown, O.

The prospective bridegroom is orance chief just back from 18 months in the South Pacific, aboard the USS Trenton.

Both are graduates of the 1940 class of New Castle high school.

SUE HARVARD WILL SING AT MUSIC HALL

Miss Sue Harvard, soprano, formerly with The Metropolitan Opera Company, is honored by being requested to sing three numbers as guest artist at the Carnegie Music Hall, Pittsburgh, on Sunday, September 2. She is known in private life as Mrs. Herbert Newton Armstrong, this city.

The meeting is under the auspices of the Council of Churches, and is the last of a series that have been held during the summer.

Dr. David West Richards will be the director of music, and Walter Fawcett, organist.

Miss Harvard has been soloist at various churches in Pittsburgh, therefore her many friends are waiting eagerly for this appearance September 2.

Mr. Fawcett is organist at the Christ M. E. church and was presiding there when Miss Harvard was soloist, previous to her acceptance of the position at the First Church of Christ Scientist, New York City.

WOMEN OF MOOSE CHANGE PLANS

Women of the Moose and their families will meet at seven o'clock this evening at the Moose Temple to proceed to the corn roast planned for this evening, place of which will be announced.

It was previously planned to hold the corn roast at the home of Mrs. Sam Woods, Meyer avenue, but there will be a change.

I. V. D. CLASS CHANGES PLACE

I. V. D. class of the First Christian church will picnic Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frank Nessel, Round street, instead of at the home of Mrs. Margaret Clark, Butler avenue, as previously announced.

Happy Group Club. Mrs. Angelo Frediani, Maryland avenue, was hostess Friday evening to the Happy Group membership in her home. Tables of 500 were in place. Mrs. Henry D. Gianfranco and Mrs. Arnold Julian received prizes. Club token told to Mrs. Frank Bordonaro. Visitors award went to Mrs. James Galois.

Mrs. Albert Anastasia, formerly of Chicago, was welcomed as an active associate. She also received a special hostess' recognition.

Mrs. Frank Bordonaro, Maryland avenue, will entertain on September 6.

A new coupling "Till Bay That Dream" and "Some Sunday Morning" by Dick Haymes and Helen Forest seems headed for top listing... there's a new release of "Boogie Woogie" by Tommy Dorsey—backed by "There You Go" by Harry James "Carnival" is a sharp bit of trumpet... Ethel Smith of "Tico Tico" fame swings out on "I Got Rhythm".

The All-Girl Hour of Charm singers and orchestra have a new album rounding out the songs of their first album—include "Lord's Prayer," "Rosary," "Ave Maria," "Love's Old Sweet Song," "Lost Chord," "National Emblem," "March," "Battle Hymn of Republic," "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Dennis Day sings "Danny Boy," "When Day Is Done," "My Heart Stood Still," "Falling In Love With You," "With A Song In My Heart"—fine singing with an Irish flavor.

The toe-tickling folk tunes of Roumania are cleverly arranged in a Fantasy by Kostelanetz and his orchestra. A single record issue.

Tchaikovsky has taken melodies of Mozart... Rodzinski has enlisted the aid of Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra— together they reproduce a delicate, delightful, twenty minutes listening.

Blanche Thebom sings in English Brahms' "Cradle Song".

Adrian Fisher (Dorothy Fisher to you) will be presented in concert at the Cathedral, September 13th, under the auspices of the Lions Club... Miss Fisher, one of the country's finest pianists with a tremendous future deserves the support of everyone in New Castle... get your ticket early.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Perils, Uncertainties
In Jap Invasion

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—What General MacArthur and his American forces are undertaking in Japan has never happened before in military history. Most of us, in the excitement that came with the ending of hostilities, failed to realize just how large a task this was, and how beset with perils and uncertainties.

We are hoping to take the peaceful surrender of an army of 2,500,000. This army is in its homeland. It has made up in considerable part of fanatics who have been schooled from birth to believe in the invincibility of their military might and of their nation.

Unprecedented Action

Such an undefeated army on such a scale has never surrendered before. Extensive fighting may still be ahead. Our military planners both here and in the Philippines have kept this possibility very, even probability—uppermost in their minds in working out the surrender details.

We jump so quickly to the easy conclusion. Even after the Tokyo area is occupied, we may find organized resistance in the outlying parts of Japan.

This leads, of course, directly to the question of military manpower. To win the peace, we must live up to the responsibilities we have undertaken in the world. That will not be possible if popular demagogues defeat the plan to keep an army sufficiently large to police the axis nations for a period of years.

Larger Than Division Army
The forces that MacArthur is taking into Japan is larger than full scale invasion army. It has to be larger to insure minimum security.

We must keep a garrison force in the Philippines. At other points in the far east, too, American troops will be necessary to prevent the peace from being entirely dissipated in chaos and anarchy.

This does not mean that we will allow ourselves to be drawn into the Chinese mess. Tremendous pressure is being put on Washington to intervene in the Chungking-communist dispute. But that pressure is being resisted.

A large proportion of MacArthur's men in the Japanese invasion—and in many respects, it is an invasion—have had more than two years of service overseas. They would have bitterly resented any lowering of the point scale for men from the European theater while the present task of occupation still lay ahead. In fact, before the Japanese surrender came, MacArthur bluntly warned the war department that he would not be able to hold an invasion army together if the rate of discharge of men from service were accelerated.

Takes Much Time
When veterans are taken out of a division and given discharge, the fighting team is broken up. Those veterans are sergeants and platoon leaders. It is necessary to put together a new team. That takes time, patience.

We could do with a little more patience in this critical interval. If Congress comes back determined to "bring the boys home" regardless of our responsibilities and obligations, then our present military strength can vanish as though it had been shattered by an atomic bomb.

An army of contented men wanting to get out is no longer an army. It is a town meeting under arms, and town meetings cannot fight wars or hold victories.

Japs Keep Planning
The little group of men who rule Japan, using the god-emperor as a front, know how they made a fatal mistake in appraising American psychology. They have said as much since the surrender. They thought we were so weak and soft we would not fight back.

This riding, taste has not given up. They will begin to plan and study for another trial at world conquest. Now they will try to repress American psychology.

If they see we are all too ready to dismiss the war and our responsibilities, they will be greatly encouraged. That will be a sign to them that all our sacrifices this time were in vain.

Gray world of the golden past,
How little could you see
Into the future, dark and vast,
Which now has come to be.

Your world was large; your oceans wide,
Your miles were minutes long.
Your vessels waited for the tide,
You knew no deathless song.

No man had flown your spacious skies,
Nor scorned your rushing streams.
The wonders now to which we rise
Were but your wildest dreams.

And reading you in modern light
With all that's come to be,
I think: What goals beyond our sight
Tomorrow's youth may see!

THE STATE POLICE SAY:
Now that gasoline rationing has been lifted, the State Police expect a great increase in highway traffic in the months ahead. Let us all soberly reflect that last year, despite gasoline, tire, and automobile rationing, there were more people killed in the United States in automobile accidents than were killed in the invasions of Iwo Jima, Saipan, Luzon, Tarawa, Leyte, and D-Day in France!

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 7.31. Sun rises tomorrow 6.33.

When a woman says she is crazy about a man, you understand why after you see him.

Know thyself, says the philosopher. Show thyself, says the woman. Blot thyself, says the man.

Her Heck says, "Dancin' is popular here, you don't need intelligence to learn how to do it."

Things that "just have to be done" are usually unpleasant.

Up to the point where it kills you, all experience is good.

Destiny sends us our relatives, but we can choose our friends ourselves.

An upish class sometimes mistakes itself for an upper class.

It is better to be silent and be thought a fool than to speak up and remove all doubts.

More men are sorry for speaking than keeping silence.

Wise (GOLDFISH)
I like the little story about the goldfish. How else they looked while swimming around in their glass home and how a member of the fish sex—deciding to clean the bowl in which her goldfish lived—discovered that they weren't so wise after all.

She had filled a large tub with water and the story goes—and then emptied the fish into the tub so that they might have a big swim while she was cleaning their bowl. But did the fish go to the edge of the tub and thus enjoy a much larger swimming area?

They did not. They swam round and round in small circles the size of the glass bowl.

People are like that, too. They become so used to their own ideas and their own limited vision that the moment some fellow with imagination tries something new, they yell: "It can't be done!"

One must imagine if one would grow.

Life would be terribly humdrum and is terribly humdrum if vision isn't exercised. If we refuse to reach out for bigger things.

Arthur Brisbane once said that it wouldn't be so very long before flying machines would take the place of our express trains on long journeys—just as trains took the place of the stagecoach. But, he added, very few people have imagination.

Yet, today, the airplane is not only an accepted convenience but an actual necessity.

Are you as wise as the goldfish? Or are you trying to swim out beyond the narrow circle of your day-to-day habits?

Stacks of plates and groups of cups, saucers and glasses, saved should be attractively arranged on the table, which should be decorated with a floral centerpiece with candles flanking the flowers. A big feature of your table decoration should be a bride cake. Your coffee service, as well as dishes of sandwiches or rolls cold cuts and cheese if these can be supplied at this time should be set on the table before the arrival of your guests. Hot foods if any, should not be served until the festivities are about to begin. Guests will help themselves and if the hostess has thoughtfully placed about the room small tables to which they can carry their plates and thus eat their food in comfort they will be spared the difficulty of trying to balance dishes on their laps.

Make everything arranged before your guests arrive so that you may have continuous service and that your guests may leave when they wish after at least a half hour's visit. Invite your friends by visiting card invitation, or writing short notes for this purpose.

After your guests have arrived and have had time to greet "the bride and groom" have a member of the family or a friend who is assisting escort them to the dining room where the buffet table is set. At an informal service, guests help themselves to refreshments with the help of someone—a friend or a member of the family stationed in the dining room for this purpose.

Two of your best friends should pour—one at each end of the table. Guests at a large open house usually come and leave in groups. They do not usually stay for the entire period.

Present your problems to Miss Marked who will mail personal replies to questions from readers in closing stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Could one nation, having overwhelming power, preserve peace? Well, has Providence, with limitless power, kept men from lightning?

Present your problems to Miss Marked who will mail personal replies to questions from readers in closing stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Prof. Harold Laski And Facts In Case

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—NOT LONG ago, Prime Minister Attlee said in effect, that Prof. Harold Laski, chairman of the British Labor Party's executive committee, neither made the new government's policies nor voiced its views. Mr. Attlee was forced into this statement by Mr. Churchill, who, calling attention to some remarks from Mr. Laski, insisted that the British people were entitled to know what and upon whose authority he spoke.

IN VIEW of a recently published article by Professor Laski in this country, it might be well for Mr. Attlee to take early opportunity of conveying to the American people what he has already explained to the British people from the facts and that neither Mr. Attlee nor the Labor government is in the least responsible for what he says or writes—particularly when he misrepresents and maligns distinguished American citizens whose ability, character and unselfishness have earned them the respect and regard of most Americans, irrespective of party or class.

FOR that is exactly what Mr. Laski has done in his most recent pamphlet, "The Road to Socialism," published by the Fabian Society in London. It is a book as well as by economists here, that the Labor Party cannot put its "reform" into operation without borrowing the money from the United States and that we might not find it feasible to lend for those purposes. He singles out Mr. E. M. Baruch, Mr. Cordell Hull and Mr. Jesse Jones, alleged exponents of this nation for attack. First, he expresses the hope that they will be shown to have forgotten that there is another America than theirs—an America that put Roosevelt in power in 1932 and was faithful to him to the day of his death.

IF THIS means anything it means that Mr. Baruch, Mr. Hull and Mr. Jones were anti-Roosevelt, opposed putting him in power, and opposed keeping him there. There is plenty of room for questioning the wisdom of their attitude but the facts are the reverse of Mr. Laski's presentation. They exhibit Mr. Laski as either very ignorant or as indifferent to the truth. All three of the men Mr. Laski criticizes supported Mr. Roosevelt in all four of his campaigns. Mr. Baruch and Mr. Jones heavily contributed to his campaign funds. Mr. Hull, in addition, supported Mr. Roosevelt for his first nomination and was his Secretary of State for more than twelve years, remaining only because of ill health.

MR. ROOSEVELT constantly sought Mr. Baruch's advice, when he knew to be valuable, not only because of his wisdom and experience but because of his extraordinary disinterestedness. As for Mr. Jones, Mr. Roosevelt looked to him with some of the heaviest responsibilities of any man in the Government. He not only was the Secretary of Commerce, but Federal Loan Administrator, with control over many billions of dollars. Mr. Roosevelt's confidence in Mr. Jones was such that he got him to straighten out the financial mess into which his son Eliott had gotten. In requesting Mr. Jones' resignation he not only highly praised his work, but in his own words said that he was naming Mr. Henry Wallace as his successor solely for political reasons.

IN THE face of these facts, the effort of Mr. Laski in picturing the Messrs. Baruch, Hull and Jones as enemies of the Roosevelt administration is therefore, in its intent, extremely malicious, and, as such, unworthy of a serious response. However, he does not stop there. In his next paragraph he asserts that they "and these driving like them" were responsible for the great depression before Roosevelt came in—and calls upon Americans to remember that. This must be admitted, is rather comical. For one thing, it has always been the silly contention of the Laski type of "liberal" in this country, that Mr. Hoover, singlehandedly, caused the depression. For another was it the Messrs. Baruch, Hull and Jones who brought on the British depression, too? Long ago economists have agreed that the depression was world-wide and the result of the World War.

THE LASKI idea that it was brought on by the Messrs. Baruch, Hull and Jones is certainly foolish. It makes the professor look foolish as a student of world economics, but it should enhance his reputation as one of the great unscrupulous humorists of the world. But there is a serious aspect to the Laski attack. He has been so widely advertised that many here, and him as the "brains" of the British Labor movement. These who believe that British-American understanding, co-operation and friendship are basic necessities for mutual security and world peace and (Continued on Page Seven)

Both the Army and Navy are taking extraordinary precautions to keep veterans from being "raided" when they leave separation centers with their uniform pockets stuffed with back salary and mulling over pay.

In an effort to discourage panhandlers and petty loafers and chiselers, who might be making an occupation out of the War and Navy departments have arranged to give a minimum of cash to discharged veterans.

The remainder of the money due any single person is given in the form of one or more checks. Returned men also are urged to mail the checks or money orders home before they leave the centers.

Taxes To Be Less
There is going to be a reduced battle in Congress over income and other taxes, but it appears certain that the average American will have less to pay the government within the next few months, perhaps after January 1.

Secretary Nelson has his tax plan ready, but from all indications it will deal mostly with series on business. On the other hand, there is growing sentiment in Congress to reduce individual income taxes.

Predictions are that the 95 per cent excess profits tax will go. For individuals the proposal seems to have most support is removal of the three per cent normal tax on incomes.

You can expect further reduction of the surplus property disposal set-up in the near future. Present heads of the organization plan to take over physical disposition of surplus property instead of merely acting as a policy-making organization.

Pushed behind such a move would be to establish responsibility with our organization.

A large battle is expected in Congress over disposition of surplus, especially airplanes and motors. Some industrialists argue that if the government dumps mountains of equipment or the market it will disrupt normal production and increase unemployment.

The other three in the group failed to get a vote and the chances are only 25 per cent of making money on his bill—added this observation.

Well, if the opinions don't realize what lies ahead of them, maybe we sure have been through the mill can take over and run the show just like we have run it overseas.

And that to my mind is the way we'll win the peace like we won the war.

Let the kids who ran the war help us to run the peace.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDIS

To many people the coming of peace seemed to be something like New Year's Eve celebration, a cause for a blarney, horn-blowing, paper-throwing and general merry rejoicing.

Happy New Year, then, to all of you who felt that way! For be it from me to be a kill-joy.

But I want to remind you that right after New Year's Day a sort-of new year always begins a year with which many responsibilities, much toil and many disappointments.

We have gone through a terrible experience, every one of us. We have suffered and sacrificed and many of our fundamental conceptions of life have been shattered.

The worst is over, but don't let us fool ourselves.
We are not going back to the way things were.

President Harding called it "normalcy."
We are entering a new war now—the war of peace.

No doubt, no atomic bombs, no doubt.
But there are a hundred enemies we have to face and conquer, innumerable treacherous enemies who fight in the dark.

Unemployment, inflation, communism, dictatorship, persecution, all these and many more are enemies that have to be watched and fought and conquered.

I talked with several returned soldiers a few days ago. They were jubilant of course over our victory.

"But do you know," said one of them, "I am more afraid of our people here at home than I was of the Japs."

In war you are on the alert every minute of the day and night for your enemy. You know what there. You know that either you get him or he gets you.

But here at home our folks don't seem to have the slightest concern over the future. The wars are over, that's all they think about. Good times, will come again. Food, gas, radios and vacuum cleaners.

Don't they realize that there is now a tremendous moral responsibility? Here we are responsible for practically the whole world from now on. What have we done to meet our responsibility?

The other three in the group failed to get a vote and the chances are only 25 per cent of making money on his bill—added this observation.

Well, if the opinions don't realize what lies ahead of them, maybe we sure have been through the mill can take over and run the show just like we have run it overseas.

And that to my mind is the way we'll win the peace like we won the war.

Let the kids who ran the war help us to run the peace.

The World and the Mud Puddles

ROTH ARE BAD

There are two trends that have developed in this country during the twelve years of the New Deal with its academicians, visionaries, spiritualists and world reformers which are gravely disturbing to believers in the traditional government of the United States.

One of these trends is that of "cuddly-to-the-people" sentiment, under which the citizen is to be made a ward of the government, spoon-fed, coddled, irresponsible and inefficient of an economic and social Santa Claus.

The other is our real for understanding to impose upon other nations our ideas and practices, under the misguided notion that we can export democracy and prosperity as the price of serving as a puppet.

Lady Bountiful and in the process of purchasing their goods and services.

The first named tendency has manifested itself in various forms, chief of which is the practice of taking from the successful and the wealthy to give to the unsuccessful and the thriftless. Not only in our so-called "social legislation" but in our taxation methods we have drifted steadily towards the Hue Long policy of redistributing the wealth.

Largely for political purposes we have poured our subsidies to one group and another and given special privileges to certain elements in the guise of promoting social justice.

In spite of the colossal failure to restore prosperity by spending billions of borrowed money, there are powerful forces which insist that it is the duty of the government to support the people rather than the duty of the people to support the government.

Our real world redemption has reached a stage in recent years and is now at its culmination, where we are attempting to regulate even our internal affairs not on the basis of the welfare of our own people but on a hazy premise that we should look out for all the rest of the world, first and ourselves last.

ROASTING EARS

Corn on the cob is sometimes called "roasting ears." It is a pretty popular food in the summer time. Most any one can play on a cob of corn.

Carol got away with five ears for dinner. She likes corn almost as much as she likes granddad.

Cob corn has nourishment and vitamins. It tastes good besides. Butter makes it taste better and also adds to the nourishment and vitamins.

Roasting is perhaps better than boiling. Some of the goodies are dissolved out in the cooking water. If it is not cooked very long there would not be much loss. The only people who do not like corn are people who do not like corn.

It makes too much work hauling away the cobs and husks.

What People Say

NEW YORK—Edgar S. Brughman, professor of philosophy at Boston University: "Discussion is better than silence, reason is better than violence, cooperation is better than anarchy, and democracy better than tyranny."

PITTSBURGH—Phillip Murray, president of the CIO: "If business built at government expense, then it is the responsibility of the government to keep them in operation."

THE HAGUE—Representative Luther Johnson of Texas: "We realize prosperity and peace go hand in hand and that we cannot be isolated from the rest of the world."

NEW ROCHELLE—Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, veteran woman suffrage worker: "Both men and women must work toward international cooperation for peace to prevent another repetition of what has happened during the last twenty-five years."

Information Gained From Enemy Nations Will Be Released

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—President Truman issued an executive order directing the release of scientific and industrial information obtained from enemy countries.

The president extended the authority to John A. Snyder, director of the office of war mobilization and reconversion, to release and publish scientific and industrial information "insofar as applicable."

The executive order defines enemy scientific and industrial information as all information concerning "scientific processes, methods, inventions, devices, improvements and advances heretofore or hereafter obtained by any department or agency of this government in enemy countries regardless of its origin or in liberated areas, if such information is of enemy origin."

President Truman declared that the executive order was issued so that such information "may be of maximum benefit to the public."

He specified, however, that the executive order does not modify the power of the secretary of war and navy to determine whether national military security permits the disclosure of particular scientific or industrial information.

Army Discharges Point System To Be Lowered Soon

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—A war department spokesman said today that a reduction in the point system for army discharges will be announced shortly after Sept. 1.

The spokesman said "we'll progressively lower the point system and bring back combat troops as speedily as possible."

It was reported that the number of points necessary for discharge would be reduced from the present 85 to 83 and then to 75.

Ellwood City Schools Open September 4

ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 28.—Ellwood City public schools will start fall sessions on Tuesday, September 4.

Enrollment at the Lincoln high school building for grades 7 through 12 inclusive will be about 1650, according to an estimate made today by R. J. Hawke, principal of the school.

Lincoln school will start the fall term with a full staff of teachers, he said.

The high school football team has returned from camp and started practice here Monday.

Librarian Lists New Biographies

The following biographies added to the shelves at the public library have been recently reviewed by Miss Alice Sterling, librarian. They are books about people of our own time.

The list follows:

Born a Commander: The Story of General Eisenhower, by Helen Nicolai.

Comme Marc: Grand Old Man of Baseball, by Fred Lieb.

Rolling Stone: The man who has had the most fun out of life, by Fred Stone.

Artist in Love: A Life of Grant Wood, by Darrell Garwood.

The Middle Span: A continuation of his persons and Places, by George Santayana.

Fighting Liberal: An autobiography by Senator George W. Norris.

Robinson Crusoe: U.S.N. the adventure of George Ray Tweed, R.M. 1, U.S.N., on Jan-Field Gunn, by Blake Clark.

GROVE CITY PILOT SHOT DOWN IN LAST DAYS OF WAR

GROVE CITY, Aug. 28.—Lt. Donn Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Drake, this city, fighter pilot who has been serving in the Pacific area, is presently at the Japs for that delay in accepting surrender terms.

His plane was hit by an explosive shell over Kishu on August 12, according to a letter received today by his parents.

He rode the plane two miles out to sea, bailed out, lost his raft and sea marker and drifted around for an hour before being picked up by a P. B. M. His plane was in flames and he was burned when he bailed out and he writes that the Navy is taking good care of him and he is recovering.

Six American Newsmen Will Enter Hungary

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The state department announced today that the Hungarian government has granted authority to six American newspaper correspondents to enter that country.

Those for whom authority has been obtained by the department will represent the International News Service, United Press, Associated Press, Chicago Tribune, PM, The Nation, and the Christian Science Monitor.

The department has also been informed by H. P. Arthur Schoenfeld, representative in Budapest, that blanket authority has also been issued for the entry into Hungary of all accredited American war correspondents with allied troops.

As far as possible the facilities of the allied control commission radio service at Budapest will be made available to such accredited American war correspondents.

Boys Must Register For Service On 18th Birthday, Warning

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—(INS)—State Selective Service Headquarters today coupled a reminder to youths that they must register for military service on their 18th birthday with a warning that "job jumpers" under 26 years of age faced immediate induction.

Lt. Col. Clarence M. Hartman, acting director, said 18 year old youths must report on the birthday "and not a day or two later."

If the date falls on a Sunday, they may report a day later.

He sought to end the confusion surrounding the relaxed controls of the War Manpower Commission by pointing out that deferred registrants between 18 and 26 years of age "cannot leave their jobs without advance permission of their local boards."

The order, he added, applied to all registrants including coal miners and members of the U. S. Merchant Marine.

Wallace Endorses Employment Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace endorsed the so-called "full employment bill" today with a declaration that the postwar era holds possibility of a 50 percent increase in the standard of living.

In a statement prepared for a Senate Banking subcommittee, Wallace asserted that the measure is designed to strengthen the free enterprise system.

"Job Jumpers" Face Induction

Local Boards Receive Orders
To Induct Men Changing
From Draft-Deferred
Jobs

DEFERMENTS ARE STILL IN ORDER

According to orders received by county Selective Service boards today, "job-jumpers," that is, men who leave draft-deferred jobs, are subject to immediate induction into the service. Similarly, men who have previously had draft-deferred jobs, and who are under 26 years of age, are liable for 1-A classification at once, if they are laid off under cut-backs.

Deferreds are still being granted, an official of one of the local boards stated today, provided he can qualify. That is, he must present a form 42-A special revised, and certified to by some certifying agency under which he works that he is essential to the war effort. Certifying agencies are the Office of Defense Transportation, Army Ordnance Department, Solid Fuels Administration, etc.

One of the board here, which sent 29 men in for pre-induction physical examination in the past few days, all of them youths between 18 and 25 years of age, had 20 rejected. Of the nine that were accepted, two had previously been classified as 4-F and were sent back for re-examination as the law requires. It was the lowest number of acceptances they had ever received.

Auto Accident Causes Arrest

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 28.—(INS)—An automobile wreck today led to the arrest of David Spohn, 25, of Sharon, whom police had been seeking on a morals charge. Police identified Spohn when they checked on a smash-up this morning, in which two brothers were seriously injured. Spohn's car collided with an automobile driven by Rev. Zmijewski, police reported.

Two women, one from Pittsburgh and the other from Sharon, had preferred moral charges against Spohn. The injured were John Maloney, 20, Neville Island, and his brother, Donald, 18. John was taken to a hospital with a possible skull fracture and Donald was treated for shock and lacerations. Police said both were riding in Spohn's car.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

family atmosphere that is calm, provided the child's diet is adequate, and his routines are well established without undue resistance or emotional disturbance is most favorable for preventing or reducing thumb-sucking.

Under these favorable conditions the offending hand is never jerked out of the youngster's mouth nor any disapproval of the practice shown nor even felt by the wise mother or anybody else.

Teething Ring

It may be well at times to slip a teething ring or block into the infant's idle hand when the other is in his mouth, or just to pull away very slowly and gently the offending hand and then pat it affectionately and fondle the youngster. Such also is good practice when the child is old enough to be shown pictures, or to read to.

He or finger sucking may begin in the first few days of the infant's life. Often at the hospital the sleeves of his garment are extended and tied over the hands. Some babies are kept during the early months in a roomy sleeping bag which enclose his arms. Often thumb-sucking is enhanced, or even begun, in early months because of hunger or improper diet.

I am aware that the mother of the child over one or two years of age who is a confirmed thumb-sucker has no easy problem. Her worry over the matter and failures to gain desired results make her less and less able to be calm and serene always in the youngster's presence. Besides, other members of the family are prone to nag at the child about it causing the mother to feel less sure of herself and hopeful of success.

If, moreover, this mother has resorted to severe and rough measures, though now convinced that such were wrong, she will have a terrific problem to hold herself to better ways thereafter. Furthermore, in these trying days, many a young mother is overwhelmed with worries and anxieties over other matters, that it may be unusually hard for her to afford the child the calm atmosphere and affectionate companionship he so much needs. Let no one condemn this mother. Rather, let us all seize every opportunity to build in her more peace of mind, hope and self-regard. Anyway, if she can realize that hundreds of thousands of fine, attractive, chronic, low grown-up were once chronic, late thumb-suckers, she will worry less and be more able to be happy with her child.

This notion has manifested itself not only in our open-handed and largely unappreciated generosity to other peoples, but in the direction of our purely domestic policies. If this trend continues to its logical culmination we shall arrive eventually at a point where we are not only unable to help any deserving neighbor, but will be unable to help ourselves.

Those who oppose visionary collectivist policies are presumed to be squelched by the epithet "reactionary." Those who believe that our first duty is to America are dismissed as "Isolationists." The theoretical guarantors of "radio-tyranny" programs—approximately seventy-five per cent of whom have never had any experience in making a living or building a business—and the starchy-eyed exponents of global salvation may or may not realize that they are laboring toward the replacement of constitutional government by state socialism and attempting to promote the weal of other nations at the expense of our own.

Both programs are bad.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

who believe that just as much with an Attlee Labor Government as with a Churchill conservative one in office will deplore this outburst.

IT DOES NOT make for cordial British-American relations. It does not make for anything good at all. It is the sort of thing which any true friend of England and the United States should resent. It has been widely printed that Mr. Laski is a great personal friend of Mr. Justice Felix Frankfurter and presumably, of the new Under Secretary of State, Mr. Dean Acheson, who is a protégé of Justice Frankfurter. As Mr. Laski is expected to come to America soon for the purpose of lecturing to us, it would seem desirable for Mr. Frankfurter and Mr. Acheson to get hold of the Professor either before or upon arrival and have a talk with him. Perhaps they could not—and would not want to—modify or change his opinions. But they might induce him to stick a little closer to the truth.

AIRBORNE TROOPS LAND ON HONSHU TO PREPARE WAY

formidable naval base itself, Gen. Douglas MacArthur personally will lead the mass airborne landings at nearby Atsugi airfield.

The "Zero Hour" for the airborne and amphibious landings was set for shortly after 6 a. m. Thursday (2 p. m. Wednesday PWT).

After occupying three islands fortresses guarding Yokosuka, the marines will move into the mainland.

Move In Saturday

Lt. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger's U. S. eighth army will move into Japan Saturday with landings at Yokohama and Tateyama in the Tokyo area.

Japanese imperial headquarters radioed Gen. MacArthur today for instructions concerning airfield facilities required by the eighth army in the Tateyama area.

International News Service war correspondent Edgar Brown, with Admiral Badgers force, reported that the Japanese have obeyed all allied orders given in connection with the occupation of Yokosuka and its nearby airfield.

Admiral Halsey's flagship, the U. S. S. Missouri, aboard which Japan's formal surrender will be signed in Tokyo bay Sunday, rode at anchor in Sagami bay with other great warships of the combined American and British fleets awaiting the word to move into Tokyo bay.

Airborne Units Land

The epoch-making entry of Japan's inner-most harbor, within the very shadow of famed Fujiyama, came several hours after MacArthur's advance airborne units landed at Atsugi, ten miles southwest of Tokyo, at 9 a. m. today (5 p. m. Monday PWT).

In a speedy flight from Okinawa, 48 big U. S. army transport planes put 150 expert technicians and engineers down at Atsugi where the American flag was planted on Japan soil.

The advanced party set to work to put the airfield in shape to avoid any mishaps in landing of the major force.

Robert Shaplen, Newsweek and NBC correspondent, on Okinawa, reported that about 20 veteran American communications men were killed when their Tokyo-bound plane crashed in taking off.

Expect MacArthur

Gen. MacArthur, himself, was expected at Okinawa some time today and Col. Shun Anchinos of Orange, N. J., head of the communications section of the advance party, had said he expected to be in contact with the supreme commander within 45 minutes after the landing.

Col. Francisco Gideon, of Payne, O., assistant chief of staff in the Far East, air forces, planned the Atsugi operation.

Col. Warburton, a former test pilot who has flown every type of Japanese aircraft, and American plane, was named commander of the Atsugi air base.

PET TERRIER IS SOME FISHERMAN

BUZZARDS BAY, Mass.—(INS)—"Stubby," pet terrier of 13-year-old Marjorie, is a real fisherman "on land" or on sea. He catches fish in Cape Cod canal and helps himself to fish which other fishermen caught. Fishermen protested. But "Stubby" keeps running home with a catch as soon as a fisherman turns for a new cast.

ADRIAN FISHER
in PIANO CONCERT
At The
CATHEDRAL AUDITORIUM
Thursday, Sept. 13, 1945

Miss Fisher is a New Castle girl and a graduate of New Castle High School. She is the daughter of A. Fisher, 216 East Moody Avenue, and is known to her many friends as Dorothy Fisher.

Previous to her New York Debut which occurred at Town Hall on April 4, 1945, Miss Fisher had played widely throughout the East where she was enthusiastically received.

Critics Acclaim Town Hall Debut:

N. Y. TIMES, Noel Straus—"Miss Fisher was technically well equipped. Her playing had poise, animation and vigor... understanding and insight... Powerful and vivid unfoldment... brilliantly presented. Interpretation had meaning and imagination and the mechanical difficulties were deftly overcome."

N. Y. HERALD TRIBUNE, Jerome D. Bohm—"Conquered technical difficulties with unflinching assurance. Tonal and musical sensibility."

NEW YORK WORLD TELEGRAM, Robert Bagar—"Miss Fisher played with elan and in technically impressive fashion. Her performance was vigorous and alive."

N. Y. POST, Harriett Johnson—"Adrian Fisher illustrated a well developed technique, a thoroughgoing musicianship and a balanced sense of style and period."

NEW YORK SUN, Oscar Thompson—"The young pianist immediately disclosed the possession of strong and nimble fingers backed by considerable musicianship... delicacy and feeling for tonal color."

Only fifty cents a day hires a Camel!

... Cheap—until you figure it out

IN Southern Arabia you can hire a camel, plus the required attendant, for about 50 cents a day.

Sounds cheap! But let's see...

If you wanted to move a ton of freight, you'd need a camel. Total cost per day—$2. Moreover, camel caravans are slow-moving ships of the desert—average around 15 miles a day. So your cost per ton mile figures out to 15 cents... and that's expensive transportation!

On the Erie and other American Railroads, where workers are paid many times as much as a camel attendant, and each freight car costs the price of 70 camels, shippers can move freight at high speeds for an average cost of not 15 cents... but less than 1 cent a ton mile!

This kind of low-cost mass transportation, created by the private capital of individual investors, enables the Erie and other railroads to meet the needs of our mass production economy. Under the American Way of Life, we have achieved the greatest industrial capacity and the highest standard of living any nation has ever known.

Labor Leaders In New Battle

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The AFL and the CIO renewed today their bitter battle for the right to represent American labor in the International arena.

Both have nominated candidates for the post of United States labor delegate to the Paris conference of the International Labor organization in October. The CIO's choice is reported to be Sidney Hillman. The AFL is backing Robert J. Watt. President Truman will make the appointment after it has cleared through Secretary of Labor Louis B. Schwelb and Secretary of State James F. Byrnes. Former Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins is expected to be named as a government delegate to the Oct. 15 meeting.

Urges Discharge Of Service Men Over Thirty Years

Senator Mead Emphasizes Need Of Speedy Discharge Of All Men Over 30 Years Of Age

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Sen. James M. Mead (D-N.Y.), declared today the Army should emphasize the speedy discharge of all men over 30, especially those with dependents.

He said there would seem to be "no excuse" for retaining any man over 35 now that the war has ended. Mead is chairman of the Senate War Investigating committee. He criticized bitterly both the Army and Navy's demobilization plans.

Regarding the Navy, he said a man in his late 30's should not be obliged to remain in service merely because of the "fortuitous circumstances that he is in the Navy rather than the Army."

Prepared Statement
The senator's remarks were made in a prepared statement several hours before the House Military Affairs committee opened hearings on President Truman's recommendation for continuation of the draft, and other postwar army policies.

Mead also declared "certainly no man over 35 should be included in troops redeployed to the Pacific. Wherever practicable, he said, men with several children should be exempted."

"There also can be no excuse for including any man with so many points as to indicate his discharge within the next six months," he added.

"There certainly should be available sufficient men without dependents who have only seen a short period of domestic duty to replace those overseas veterans."

"All too little thought has been given to this matter."

Mead suggested that the Army set up an automatic discharge time and age for limited servicemen who have seen long periods of duty in the United States.

He emphasized dependency in demobilization.

SPOTLIGHT Of Today

(International News Service)

Patrick J. Hurley

Patrick J. Hurley, who today is attempting to bring peace and harmony to the Chinese followers of Chiang Kai-Shek and the Yenan Communists, is an old hand at settling factional disputes.

It's a job he once did among the Choctaw Indians, a job he has since done on a national and international scale.

Hurley, the present U. S. ambassador to Chungking, who also holds the rank of major general in the Army, has been a troubleshooter for a succession of Presidents.

Born 62 years ago in Oklahoma, he has been a milkman, a cow-hand, a lawyer, a soldier and a diplomat. He was secretary of war under President Hoover. He stumped Oklahoma against the New Deal in 1932 and 1936, but President Roosevelt commissioned him a brigadier general after the war began. He had seen service in the last war, rising to a colonel and was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal.

In this war he won an oak leaf cluster to the D.S.M. for organizing a blockade running service of fishing boats into the Philippines in 1942. But soon his duties ran heavily toward the diplomatic side serving as a special representative in the Middle East, in Russia and China. It goes back to the days when he was counsel for the Choctaw Indians.

NATURAL GAS—

Another Veteran of the Duration—is Mustered Out

ALL RESTRICTIONS ARE LIFTED ON THE USE OF GAS IN THE HOME

Here's the good news thousands of homeowners have been waiting for!

Government Order U-7, which restricted the use of Gas for new heating installations, has been rescinded effective at once.

As a result you can now plan to enjoy the many advantages of automatic Gas heat in your home—completely automatic operation, spot and span cleanliness, uniform healthful heat, plus the carefree comfort and convenience you've always wanted.

Unfortunately, Gas heating equipment is not yet available for all who might want it.

It will take some time for manufacturers to secure necessary materials and to reconvert their plants to peace time manufacture. But you can rely on their initiative and genius to speed production so that before long the best of equipment will again be in ample supply.

While we're waiting for equipment, it will pay you to take steps to get the best Gas heating possible. Insulation and storm windows will assure you the utmost economy in Gas heat. And be sure to talk the matter over with your Gas Company or heating contractor. Get an estimate of the cost of heating your home the modern way—with Natural Gas.

Your Gas Company thanks you for the wholehearted cooperation you extended during the many trying days, now happily past. We look forward to serving you well in the peaceful days ahead, so that Gas, your most versatile fuel in the home, will continue to give you the high quality of service you have learned to expect from it.

CUDAHY'S TANG...

WHILE THIS FOOT-SLOGGING G.I.
GETS SECOND HELPINGS OF PORK?

When a fighting G.I. has slogged through mud for hours, delicious pork disappears fast from his menu. Are there second helpings? You bet! Cudahy helps make sure of that for hundreds of thousands of fighting men in all branches of the service.

That is why you can't always get Cudahy's Tang. Tang is made from pure pork extra lean. And this selected pork is one of the meats that Cudahy is sending in such great quantities to the Armed Forces. But please keep watching for Tang because we are striving to do two jobs:

1. Cooperate with the Government in helping supply meat to our fighting men.

2. As a part of this community, help supply meat for civilians—as much and as often as possible.

Asserts Six In Governor Race

Many In Governor's Cabinet
Would Be Candidates
For Nomination

OTHER NEWS OF STATE CAPITOL

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—At least six members of Gov. Edward Martin's cabinet are regarded in Capitol Hill political circles as possible candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination next year. Secretary of internal affairs William S. Livingston, J. J. Somerset, and highways secretary John U. Shroyer, of Shamokin, have long been mentioned as possible candidates. Insurance commissioner Gregg L. Neel, of Pittsburgh, some leaders say, is a "dark horse" in the race. The 52-year-old Neel managed Governor Martin's campaign in Allegheny county in 1942.

The names of three other cabinet officers have been mentioned as candidates. They are attorney general James H. Duff, of Carnegie, commerce secretary Floyd Chaffant, Waynesboro publisher, and secretary of property and supplies C. M. Woodworth, Lancaster animal trap manufacturer. Duff, one of the ablest members of the cabinet, however, was reported by some leaders as not too interested. Last year he turned down a GOP offer to support him for the U. S. senate in preference to James J. Davis, of Pittsburgh.

"Pennsylvanians face the postwar world with the largest accumulation of savings ever recorded in the history of the commonwealth," the state planning board reports. Time deposits in state and national banks plus postal savings accounts exceed $3,000,000,000, or an average of $300 saved by every man, woman and child in the commonwealth, the board added.

The Pennsylvania federationist, organ of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor (AFL), says Labor Day this year is more significant than ever before. With the greatest conflict in the history of the world ended by the defeat of Japan, this Labor Day becomes more significant, the publication commented. "For labor had a major part in World War II—both on the home front and the field of battle. And what could be more fitting than celebrations to observe this festival day for public tribute to the genius of the American worker."

Gov. Edward Martin has urged local officials to make a prompt appraisal of public needs in the post-war period. "If a municipality expects to replace water mains, build a sewage treatment plant, replace streets or make other improvements, plans should be started immediately," the governor said. He explained that the health department will pay one-half of the cost of preparing sewage treatment plants and the postwar planning commission supply one-half of the funds for the preparation of plans for approved projects by counties, municipalities or school districts.

Reports 100,000

Japanese Died In Tokyo Raid

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Some 100,000 Japanese died in a flaming death in a large-scale B-29 incendiary attack on Tokyo last March 10.

This was reported today by Dr. Lars P. Tillise, former Danish minister to Tokyo.

In the raid referred to by Dr. Tillise, 300 Superforts dropped 2,500 tons of incendiary bombs on the Tokyo area.

"I shall never forget the attack," the Danish diplomat said in a radio address. "Incendiaries were scattered all over the city and a scale swept the fire from house to house."

"From my window I looked into the flames that devoured houses and trees and everything in their way. That night more than 100,000 Japanese were burned to death."

Reports published at the time of the raid—the largest staged against Tokyo up to that time—said high winds swept fires through a 17-square mile area.

Sergt. Adams Tells Of Tour Of France

Sgt. Harold Adams of Hillcrest avenue, who is in the army of occupation, serving at the headquarters of the 1104th Engineers, recently concluded a seven-day pass in France.

Sgt. Adams, who has been overseas a year, left Frankfurt, Germany, in a C-47 and flew over the Swiss Alps to Nice, France, the trip taking three and a half hours. He and a friend toured the city, visited the famous Monto Carlo resort, and facts that are centuries old. They also traveled through the Maritime Alps and Italy. Many tropical plants including palm, olive and banana trees were seen.

Later the New Castle man went for a cruise down the Mediterranean and enjoyed a swim in the sea. He was especially interested in the pottery, near Nice, as he was employed by the Shenango Pottery, New Castle, previous to entering service. Sgt. Adams adds that the methods used in the French pottery are crude compared to those of the local plant.

Committees Of Congress Take Up Reconversion

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Two of President Truman's reversion "musts"—unemployment compensation expansion and streamlining of the war surplus property board—were placed today before House committees.

The House Ways and Means committee was called into executive session to decide whether to proceed immediately with public hearings on unemployment compensation.

At the same time the House committee on executive expenditures launched hearings on President Truman's recommendation that a war surplus property czar be created by Congress.

W. Stuart Symington, chairman of the present three-man surplus property board, was the first scheduled witness on the legislation which would set up a single administrator for the 100 billion-dollar surplus disposal business. He was to be followed by representatives of the Army, Navy and Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Cousins Meet On French Riviera

First Lt. Lois M. Gibson, A.N.C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gibson of Cunningham avenue, met her cousin, First Lt. Gladys M. Gibson, A.N.C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson, of Sheridan avenue, when she arrived at Marseilles, France, recently.

Lt. Gladys Gibson, who has been at Marseilles for the past month, landed in France with the 14th general hospital in September a year ago.

Lt. Lois Gibson went overseas with the 99th general hospital in April 44 and was located at Reims and Verdun until a month ago when she was transferred to the 250th general hospital and moved to Marseilles.

Both nurses are graduates of the James Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

Chinese Leaders Back In Nanking

CHUNGKING, Aug. 28.—(INS)—General Leng Hsin, deputy chief of staff of the Chinese army, and other officers today established new advanced headquarters at Nanking, former capital of the Chinese national regime.

The general and 150 other officers arrived at Nanking aboard seven American transport planes.

Gen. Akio Inai, Japanese surrender envoy, met the Chinese officers. Meanwhile the return to Chungking of Maj. Gen. Patrick Hurley, U. S. ambassador to China, from Yenan was awaited. Gen. Hurley flew to Yenan yesterday to escort Communist leader Gen. Mao Tse-tung back to Chungking for conferences with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

The Lancaster, Pa., speedster has been granted permission by his commanding officer at Camp Kilmer, N. J., to compete in several inter-Ally track meets in Paris next month.

Roosevelt Loan Probe Continues

House Ways and Means Committee
Investigating $200,000 Elliott
Roosevelt Loan Deal

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—House ways and means committee members awaited today a closed-door recital of the second chapter of the John Hartford-Elliott Roosevelt loan investigation.

The committee learned in a meeting Monday that the late President Roosevelt personally approved the $200,000 transaction which turned into a $196,000 "bad debt."

Members indicated that the next deposition to be read from the Internal Revenue Bureau official report now in their hands will probably be that given by former Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt.

Committee members disclosed they were told yesterday that Hartford president of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. was advised by the late President that he would appreciate him making the $200,000 loan to Elliott in 1942.

The same closed door meeting produced another statement by Jesse Jones, former secretary of commerce, in which Jones revealed that the chief executive called him in and asked him to make the best settlement he could in straightening out Elliott's financial affairs.

Jones, according to committee members, proceeded to settle the Hartford loan for $4,000 of his own funds. While he had not been reimbursed at the time of the statement, they said, Jones indicated he still expects to be repaid.

Legion Post Has Annual Corn Roast

Two Hundred Attend Annual Event
At Past Commander Boyd's
Cottage Monday Eve

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, had its annual corn roast at the cottage of Past Commander R. L. Boyd, in Chapin road, Monday evening, with around 200 members and guests in attendance.

After a delicious feed of corn, veiners, etc., prepared by Chairman

Clarence S. Jarrett, and his committee, a business meeting was held. It was announced that under a ruling received from the National American Legion, all men in service will be eligible for membership in the American Legion when V-J day is proclaimed, thus ending hostilities. The post voted to extend membership to these men for per-capita tax while they are in service.

Past Commander Iver V. Davis presented Frank L. "Jewie" Coen with a handsome wrist watch as a token of appreciation for the fine job he has done in assisting with coaching the junior baseball team over the past four years. Coen responded in a fitting manner.

Seventh Ward

New Principal To Direct School

Preparations Are Being Made For
Opening Of School Term
Next Wednesday

Plans for the opening of the seventh ward public school on Wednesday, Sept. 5, are now being completed. The school will be under a new head during the coming year, Fred McClure assuming his duties as principal, filling the position vacated by Principal Nannie L. McClure, who was elevated by the school board for the coming year to the important post of principal of the George Washington high school on the North Hill. Miss McClure was in charge of the Mahoning school over a long period of years while the new principal, Mr. McClure, was an instructor in the high school prior to being named for the post here. Change in leadership at the Mahoning school will result in no extensive changes in methods or classes, it is indicated.

Election Delay In Bulgaria Stirs Open Enthusiasm

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Aug. 28.—(INS)
—A wave of open enthusiasm is evident today in Bulgaria over the postponement of elections which previously were scheduled to be held under the dominance of a Communist minority.

Opposition forces have dared to demonstrate openly for the first time since the end of the war and were loud in their cheers as they marched past the American legation on their way to the home of Agrarian Leader Nikola Petkov.

Maynard Barnes, the American minister, conveyed the American protest to Communist leaders Aug. 13 and the protest of British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin arrived August 21.

Despite this joint protest the Communists, representing only some 15 per cent of the Bulgarian people, insisted until last Friday that the elections would be held.

The about face of the Bulgarians is interpreted by observers in Sofia to be the result of a realistic Soviet policy since the final decision is generally assumed to have been made in Moscow.

Compensation Not Enough To Warrant Giving Up Diploma

School-Age Workers Advised To Continue Schooling While
Jobs Are Scarce

All persons claiming unemployment compensation do not receive the maximum amount of $20 for 20 weeks, the New Castle U. S. E. S. office reminds school-age workers who have been laid off because of cuts in local war production.

In many cases, youthful claimants are not eligible for any compensation because their 1944 earnings were not sufficient, and if they do receive compensation it is not enough to warrant forfeiting their education. "It is our opinion that the best thing these youngsters can do is to enroll at once for the coming term of high school so that they can continue their schooling immediately," says George Gettings, manager of the office. "The longer they wait the harder it will be to start in again, and the person without a high school diploma is going to be at a disadvantage in the post-war job competition."

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often
Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tied kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acid and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with aching and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a similar diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

More Than Fifty Applications For Maritime Training

Large Number Seek To Enter
Merchant Marine In This Locality, Says Lt. Rosen

Lt. Hank Rosen, in charge of the Merchant Marine recruiting in New Castle, said today that more than 50 men applied for maritime training Monday, Aug. 27.

"The number of applicants exceeded our expectations. New Castle really is doing its patriotic duty," Lt. Rosen said.

All the applicants were referred to the U. S. Maritime Service in Pittsburgh. However, the Pittsburgh office was notified to close today. All applicants should proceed to the Philadelphia office of the Maritime Service, Linn Title Building, 100 South Broad street.

Lt. Rosen will be at the U. S. E. S. in Old City August 28 and 29. There is still an urgent need for experienced seamen. The Merchant Marine will have the immense task of bringing the boys home and supplying the armies of occupation.

INCREASE IN JOBS IN SOME INDUSTRY NOW PREDICTED

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Increased employment in heavy industry after reconversion problems are solved was predicted today as business and government leaders reassured estimates of the number of war workers now losing their jobs.

While reports of additional layoffs in shipyards and aircraft plants in the east continued, Eugene C. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel company, offered one note of optimism.

He said his company's postwar employment has been estimated at 150,000 or 60 per cent higher than the pre-war peak of 100,000 in 1937.

Penn State will entrust its football coaching staff again this fall.

SECOND BOY IS KICKED BY HORSE

MERCER, Aug. 28.—A second boy has been admitted to the Mercer Cottage hospital within a week for treatment of injuries suffered when kicked by a horse.

David Little, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Little, R. D. 2, Fredonia, suffered a depressed fracture of the skull when he was kicked by a horse on the family farm Saturday afternoon.

Last Tuesday, William Frisbee, 7, of R. D. Sandy Lake, suffered a wound on the face requiring 10 stitches when he tickled the hind leg of a horse owned by Paul Jones, Sandy Lake-Grove City road.

Price Ceilings For New Autos Will Be Fixed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Just how much the new, 1946 model automobiles will cost awaited price ceiling computation today by the nation's auto manufacturers and its approval by the OPA.

OPA Administrator Chester Bowles promised civilians that the first batch of "peacetime" autos should cost about the same as 1942 models.

Government sources, meantime, predict that only about 500,000 of the 1946 models will be manufactured during the remainder of the year.

In Detroit, the manufacturers are working out their own price ceilings under OPA's pricing formula given to them last week.

They will base their ceiling price adjustments on costs in the last period of normal production. To this they will add increases in basic wage rate schedules and in materials costs plus a normal peacetime margin of profit.

State Salvage Program Ends September 30

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's salvage program was scheduled today to end September 30.

Gov. Edward Martin said the state defense council's salvage committee and county and local councils of defense groups "will be honorably discharged with the thanks of the commonwealth."

"The decision to terminate the salvage program is in line with the council's plan to end volunteer war activities just as quickly as they were no longer needed," the governor said.

For nearly 43 months, Governor Martin reported, more than 500,000 volunteers representing 1100 salvage committees collected waste paper, tin, used tires, rags, iron and steel scrap, silk and nylon hosiery.

"They accomplished so great a job that this state has contributed to all others in the national salvage program," he stated.

TWO ARE INJURED NEAR GROVE CITY

GROVE CITY, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Byron King and Mrs. Ethel A. Bice, neighbors who live on Route 4, Grove City, suffered severe cuts on their legs and minor chest injuries when their cars collided on the Grove City-Sandy Lake road. Mrs. King was traveling south and swerved to the left hand side of the road when a car preceding her stopped suddenly. In so doing, she collided head-on with the Bice car which was headed north. Both women were brought to the Osteopathic hospital here.

ELKS OF STATE NAME OFFICERS

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Aug. 28.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Elks Association was headed today by Dr. Charles V. Hogan of Pottsville, who succeeded W. T. Baird of Greenville.

Hogan, named yesterday during the Association's meeting at Williamsport, was elected along with Lee A. Donaldson of Etna, vice president; William G. Gould of Scranton, secretary; Frank D. Croop of Berwick, trustee; and Charles A. Brown of Allegheny, treasurer.

Will Increase Discharge Rate For Men In Navy

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The navy's reconversion program today was thrown into high gear.

The top command revealed plans to practically double the discharge rate and reduce the fleet to peacetime strength by September, 1945.

Secretary of the Navy Forrestal announced that the present naval strength of 3,289,000 men would be cut to 500,000 men and 50,000 officers in the next 12 months.

This is a greater reduction than called for in the original naval demobilization program announced Aug. 15. At that time the navy promised to discharge from one and a half million to two and a half million men in the next 12 to 18 months.

Forrestal said the navy is now working out plans to modify the point discharge system to include additional credits for overseas duty

The new system was expected to be announced within six weeks to two months.

It was explained that overseas credit could not have been included in the original point system without risking an unpredictable loss of personnel strength. Forrestal said naval records were incomplete at that time because of rapid and frequent transfers, security limitations and losses of records in combat.

Two Hundred Polio Cases In State This Year

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Deputy Health Secretary J. Moore Campbell reported today that 200 infantile paralysis cases have been listed in Pennsylvania since January 1 and warned the disease was expected to reach a peak next month.

"September 1, very apt to be the peak month," Campbell stated. "Statistics, dating from 1910, show that occurrence of polio is definitely seasonal."

"For 35 years, our figures have shown us that the month of September is the curve of the disease," he added. "Four hundred cases of the disease may be reported by the end of 1945, Campbell said."

Two splendid action pictures from the late war have been secured for showing at our noon luncheon meeting in The Castleton, Wednesday, Kiwanian C. M. England will be at the controls. Ballots in the election must be in by noon Wednesday when tellers will be appointed and the counting started.

MARKET UPSURGE CONTINUES TODAY

But On Less Forceful Scale Than Monday, Trading Continues Heavy

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The current upsurge in the stock market continued today but on a less forceful scale as the advance attracted profit taking. Trading continued at the rate of more than a million shares in the forenoon. A total of 330,000 shares changed hands in the first hour. The general list gained fractionally with a few scattered specialties stronger. Pullman jumped 2 points to 37, a new high. Stocks owned firm but lagged when sales came in late in the initial period. Motors were under pressure but managed to hold around prevailing levels. Santa Fe and Pennsy advanced fractionally. Aviation, communications, and utilities trailed fractional plus gains. Farm equipments gained round with International Harvester.

Price changes in the bond market were meaningless.

Banquet For Nurses Of New Castle Class

Juniors Entertain Seniors At New Castle Hospital Nurses Home Monday Evening

Graduating nurses of the New Castle hospital school of nursing were entertained by the junior class at a banquet in the nurses home Monday evening. Plans were set for 55 with Hawaiian music adding to the charm of the dinner. Dorothy Simcik was mistress of ceremonies for the program which followed at which Vernon Fritz, acting president of the student society, gave the welcoming address. "A Boy On His Stomach" was the title of a second address given by Thelma Cohen, after which the group was entertained with a vocal solo by Patricia Chip and a duet by Thelma Cohen and Mary Ann Stefanski. Tap dancing by Rosemary Factor and an acrobatic dance by Rosemary Place both delighted the audience. The class prophecy was read by Thelma Cohen, and a farewell song was sung for the class of 1945 by the class of 1946. Near the close of the program, Sister Mary Dolores, director of the school of nursing, spoke to the graduates, 15 of whom are members of the Cadet Nurse Corps. Both the Sisters of St. Francis and the student nurses took part in planning and arranging the dinner, with Rosemary Place as chairman of the social committee and Ann Boron as chairman of the decorating committee.

Escaped Prisoner En Route To Cell

SOMERSET, Pa., Aug. 28.—(INS)—Albert Fulmer, 37, who walked out the door of the Cambria county jail August 6 after a scuffle with a jailer, today was enroute back to his cell. Fulmer, awaiting trial for murder, was captured under the home of Mrs. Emma Christner at nearby Keystone state police Captain Andrew J. Hudock reported. Three others scaled a wall to escape at the same time Fulmer gained his freedom. Two of these, Jack Knoll and James L. Walker, were recaptured. Walker was also under indictment for murder.

McMullen Finds Man Here Who Has Six Fingers

Detective Further Amazed When Youth Reports He Also Once Had Six Fingers

It is not unusual for a person to have five fingers on each hand. In fact, almost everyone has that many unless an amputation removed one but, when a person has six fingers on each hand—that is unusual and it becomes a news story when in the same room a second person is found who had six fingers but had the extra digits amputated. Today when Setton Davis, 55, colored, Lenoir, Va., but now a local resident stepped up to have his finger-prints taken by Chief of Detectives Willis McMullen, the fingerprint expert blinked his eyes and asked: "Hold up your hands!" McMullen counted Davis fingers then remarked: "I thought I was seeing things but I guess I'm not. You have a thumb and five fingers on each hand." Davis held them out for a News reporter to count. He had a "pair of sixes." "I had six fingers, too," remarked a young colored man, Bob Carter, Green street, who was in city hall. He explained that the extra finger on each hand was amputated when he was young.

FILM SHOWN ON ROTARY FOUNDER

Rotarians See Paul Harris In His Chicago Office And Home And Hear History Of Rotary

Rotarians were given an opportunity of getting acquainted with the founder of their order, at their weekly luncheon meeting in The Castleton Monday noon, when a film showing Paul Harris, who conceived the idea of founding a social club for business men, was presented.

Past President Harry Elder gave a biographical sketch of Mr. Harris' life. After various ventures, Mr. Harris settled in Chicago to begin the practice of law around 1900, and while out walking with a business acquaintance in the Chicago suburban area, was impressed by the fact that his friend was able to call so many men they met by their first names.

After pondering the matter for five years, he finally established the first Rotary Club in Chicago on February 23, 1905. It was not until 1908 that the second club was formed in San Francisco, and by 1910 there had been 16 clubs formed. The New Castle Club has the honor and distinction of being one of the early clubs, having been the 89th one to be granted a charter in 1913.

Mr. Harris in the picture, outlined the purposes on which Rotarianism was founded.

Four of the charter members of the New Castle Club were present at Monday's meeting. They were: Fred L. Renz, DeLace Cole, George Lyon and Rudolph Stadelhofer.

Cpl. F. E. Gaydosik Overseas For 23 Months In Pacific

WITH THE 1913TH ENGR. AVN. BN. ON LUZON—Cpl. Frank E. Gaydosik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gaydosik, route 6, and husband of Mrs. Stella Gaydosik, 103 Sharp street, New Castle, Pa., has recently completed his 23rd month of active overseas duty, and is now stationed on Luzon in the Philippines with the veteran 1913th engineer aviation battalion.

A veteran of New Guinea, New Britain, Dutch East Indies and the Philippines, Cpl. Gaydosik is entitled to wear four battle participation stars on his Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon, the good conduct medal and the Philippine liberation ribbon. Before entering the army Gaydosik was employed by the Blair Steel Co., New Castle, Pa.

GOOD PASTURES MEAN CHEAPER FEED

Improved permanent pastures, with supplemental pasture crops for use during July and August will supply nearly all the roughage for cattle during the pasture season, according to Frank Bamer, Extension Agronomist of Pennsylvania State College. Mr. Bamer made this statement in connection with the recent Grassland Field Day on the F. W. Byers farm, North Beaver Township.

More than fifty farmers saw the results of pasture improvement on the Byers farm. In addition they saw two fields which were "triple-purpose pastures", having been used for grass silage, hay, and pasture.

According to Mr. Bamer, Ladino clover and orchard grass, when added to the regular hay mixture, provides grazing during hot weather when other pastures fail. One acre for every five cows usually serves to supply plenty of supplemental pasture.

Nazi Espionage Agent Taken After Chase

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The FBI today disclosed the arrest of Hans Rudolf Christian Zuehlendorf, 25-year-old German espionage agent, described as an associate of the two Nazi spies who were captured on the Maine coast after landing from a U-boat in 1944.

Zuehlendorf, the FBI said, was one of three Germans agents who were being groomed by the German intelligence service for "important roles in the last desperate attempts of the German command to obtain vital information concerning the Allied military and political intentions."

He was taken into custody on August 9, 1945, by British authorities in Trinidad, British West Indies, where he was traveling on a Spanish boat equipped with forged Argentine documents and posing as an Argentine, the FBI said.

Major P. R. Phelps Gets Bronze Star

WITH THE 37TH INFANTRY DIVISION ON LUZON—Major Philip R. Phelps, son of Thomas C. Phelps of R. D. 4, New Castle, Pa., has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal.

Major Phelps was commissioned a second lieutenant in September 1942 and has been with the 251st Field Artillery Battalion since its activation. He has a brother, Louis A. Phelps, now serving in the Navy. Major Phelps unit served in the New Guinea campaign and during the Luzon liberation, it supported the Sixth Infantry Division at the battle of Munoz, the 25th Infantry Division at Balete Pass, and the 37th Infantry Division, in its drive up the Cagayan Valley.

The 1932 Nobel prize for literature was won by the late John Galsworthy, English author.

Endocrine helps the face become more youthful looking

Many thousands of ENDOCREME users in the last 8 years have found to their own enthusiastic satisfaction that ENDOCREME helps to regain a more youthful texture and beauty of the skin of face and throat. ENDOCREME with most women brings results hitherto thought impossible. It actually helps to improve the skin itself, not just its superficial appearance. This is because ENDOCREME with its ACTIVOL... a scientific replacement for woman's natural skin-vitalizing substance... is absorbed by the skin to help restore normal growth of cells and tissues. This assists the skin to become smoother, fresher, softer, actually more alluringly youthful again. How better can any woman invest her cosmetic dollars? You, too, should try ENDOCREME. Many report great improvement in just 30 days.

Endocrine... in successful use since 1937... the only cream containing ACTIVOL...

WOODSIDE VISITOR HERE
Robert G. Woodside, Controller of Allegheny County was a visitor here yesterday for the purpose of inspecting the system of checking records of payment which the county has set up here in the Controller's office.

Mr. Woodside is contemplating setting up a system in Allegheny county and had heard that the system used here was one of the best. It was developed by County Treasurer Frank Hill, when he served as Controller.

Accompanying Mr. Woodside were his brother Nevin Woodside; Alfred E. Ankney and H. P. Letwin.

LET COAL CONTRACT
Contract for furnishing coal to the county home and to the court house and Annex was let this morning with the full board of commissioners present.

The Seigel Coal Company of Ellwood City was awarded the contract for the County Home at their bid of $5.80 per ton for three-inch lump coal.

The contract for the court house and annex went to Boyles Coal and Supply Company, at their contract of $4.95 per ton for stoker coal.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S FETE ON FRIDAY

Mayor Haven's Recreation Committee To Have Many As Cascade Park Guests

Friday, commencing at 6 p. m., the grove in Cascade park will be the mecca of scores of young persons, all of whom are going to enjoy a picnic dinner provided by the mayor's recreation project committee.

Cheese and hot dog sandwiches, chocolate milk and coffee in sufficient quantity to satisfy the young folk will be free, it is announced.

The people eligible to attend will be members of the Swing Lobby, junior high members and the Youth Canteen.

Following the lunch in the grove those in attendance will go to Rainbow terrace where they may dance free.

The committee to handle the affair is being selected now by Mayor Haven's recreation committee.

Garden Notes

Currants should be included when bush fruits are desired. They are especially hardy, tolerating both cold and shade. They give a crop the first year and with care can be counted on for 15 years of service.

If Victory cabbages planned for storage purposes have not yet started ripening, bend the tops over sharply just above the ground with the back of a garden rake.

All the Victory vegetables except those planned for storage should be kept closely picked. Broccoli, especially, should be kept from putting out yellow flowers.

Keep checking the late cabbage plants for signs of cabbage worms. The bean beetle also may still be active even this late in the season and should be kept down whenever it puts in an appearance.

Gooseberries, like currants, are well suited to the small Victory garden since they will not spread where they are not wanted. They will bear the first year and for long years afterwards.

LOCAL SOLDIER SEES GRANDFATHER FOR FIRST TIME

Pvt. Joseph Temperato, stationed in Germany, took advantage of a 15-day furlough to fly to Bu. Latini, Italy, to visit his grandfather, Joseph Conti, and an uncle, Sissantonia Conti, for the first time in his life.

The New Castle soldier has been in service two years and overseas eight months, serving with the first artillery, 68th division. He is the son of Mrs. Antonetta Temperato, 617 Spruce street.
